Principal’s Report

Cyberstafety talk with Senior Constable Lynch
We would like to thank Senior Constable Janelle Lynch for running a presentation with our Stage 3 students in regards to being safe and responsible in the online environment. The student feedback was that this was a worthwhile and productive discussion.

How2Learn
This week, Miss Condon and I will be participating in the final training days for the How2Learn initiative. We look forward to continuing to share this learning with you.

Kindergarten Orientation
This Friday is our final session of Kindy orientation and will run for a full day. It has been wonderful to share the last few Fridays with our new students for 2016 and we look forward to the beginning of next year when they will return.

Have a great week!
Kate Brace
Principal (Rel)

Year 6 Mini-Fete
Year 6 students are seeking Trash n’ Treasure items for the Year 6 Mini-Fete to be held in Week 10. Items can be brought to Mr Turner’s office, Thankyou.

Congratulations to Mrs Hilton and her family!
We would all like to express our excitement and congratulate Mrs Hilton and her family on the arrival of Jack Thomas Hilton. He arrived in the world yesterday morning and mother and baby are both doing well.

Book Fair
We are looking forward to the arrival of our Scholastic Book Fair this week! Students will have the opportunity to browse through the books this week, ready to make their purchases next week at the following times:
When: Week 6
Monday 3pm – 5pm
Tuesday 8.30am – 9am
Wednesday 1.30pm – 2pm
Where: Our School Library
I do hope this Book Fair will be well supported by our community as the commission from sales is used to purchase new resources for our library. Come along and buy some great books. Six $10 Book Fair Lucky Door vouchers will be drawn at the end of the Book Fair. To enter, just buy a book!
I hope you have a great week reading!
Mrs S. Chilvers
Teacher – Librarian
